

PRIVACY POLICY

POLICY STATEMENT

This policy outlines the circumstances in which we obtain personal information, how we use and disclose that information and how we manage requests to access and/or change that information.

RATIONALE

St Jakob is bound by the Australia Privacy principals and seeks to comply with its obligation under Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act) and the 13 Australian Privacy Principles (APPs). This document outlines how the school complies with the above act and describes:

- Who we collect information for
- The types of information collected
- How the information is collected and held
- The purpose in which the information is collected, held, used and disclosed
- How you can gain access to your information

PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTION

Depending on the circumstances, we may collect personal information from the individual in their capacity as a student, contractor, volunteer, stakeholder, job applicant, alumni, visitors or others that come into contact with the school.

In the course of providing services we may collect and hold:

- Personal Information including names, addresses and other contact details; dates of birth; next of kin details; photographic images; attendance records and financial information.
- Sensitive Information (particularly in relation to student and parent records) including government identifiers (such as TFN), religious beliefs, nationality, country of birth, professional memberships, family court orders and criminal records.
- Health Information (particularly in relation to student and parent records) including medical records, disabilities, immunisation details and psychological reports.

As part of our recruitment processes for employees, contractors and volunteers, we may collect and hold:

- Personal Information including names, addresses and other contact details, dates of birth, financial information, citizenship, employment references, regulatory accreditation, media, directorships, property ownership and driver's licence information.

- Sensitive Information including government identifiers (such as TFN), nationality, country of birth, professional memberships, family court orders and criminal records.
- Health Information (particularly in relation to prospective staff and student records) including medical records, disabilities, immunisation details and psychological reports.
Generally, we will seek consent from the individual in writing before we collect their sensitive information (including health information).

It is noted that employee records are not covered by the APPs where they relate to current or former employment relations between the school and the employee.

SOLICITED INFORMATION

St Jakobi has, where possible, attempted to standardise the collection of personal information by using specifically designed forms (e.g. an Enrolment Form or Health Information Disclosure Form). However, given the nature of our operations we also receive personal information by email, letters, notes, via our website, over the telephone, in face-to-face meetings, through financial transactions and through surveillance activities such as the use of CCTV security cameras or email monitoring.

We may also collect personal information from other people (e.g. a third-party administrator, referees for prospective employees) or independent sources. However, we will only do so where it is not reasonable and practical to collect the personal information from the individual directly.

INFORMATION COLLECTED FROM OUR WEBSITE

We may collect information based on how individuals use our website. We use “cookies” and other data collection methods to collect information on website activity such as the number of visitors, the number of pages viewed and the internet advertisements which bring visitors to our website. This information is collected to analyse and improve our website, marketing campaigns and to record statistics on web traffic. We do not use this information to personally identify individuals.

UNSOLICITED INFORMATION

St Jakobi may be provided with personal information without having sought it through our normal means of collection. This is known as “unsolicited information” and is often collected by:

- Misdirected postal mail – Letters, Notes, Documents
- Misdirected electronic mail – Emails, electronic messages
- Employment applications sent to us that are not in response to an advertised vacancy
- Additional information provided to us which was not requested.

Unsolicited information obtained by St Jakobi will only be held, used and or disclosed if it is considered as personal information that could have been collected by normal means. If that unsolicited information could not have been collected by normal means then we will destroy, permanently delete or de-identify the personal information as appropriate.

COLLECTION AND USE OF SENSITIVE INFORMATION

We only collect sensitive information if it is:

- reasonably necessary for one or more of these functions or activities, and we have the individual's consent
- necessary to lessen or prevent a serious threat to life, health or safety
- another permitted general situation
- another permitted health situation.

We may share sensitive information to other entities in our organisation structure, but only if necessary for us to provide our products or services.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information is used for the purposes for which it was given to St Jakobi, or for purposes which are directly related to one or more of our functions or activities.

PERSONAL INFORMATION OF STUDENTS

The Privacy Act does not differentiate between adults and children and does not specify an age after which individuals can make their own decisions with respect to their personal information.

At St Jakobi we take a common sense approach to dealing with a students personal information and generally will refer any requests for personal information to parents/carers.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all staff and students of the school, and provides information about areas of responsibility, reporting and communication. This policy applies to Council Members, employees, volunteers, Parents/Cregivers,

RESPONSIBILITIES

Principal

- Ensure that St Jakobi, through the Campus Board, delegates to the Principal the responsibility to ensure the requirements of the Privacy Amendment Act 2012, which amends the Privacy Act 1988 and 2001, are met. Further, it is required of the Principal that they ensure that information held about people is managed responsibly.
- St Jakobi will use personal information it collects to enable it, to provide learning, teaching and wellbeing programs appropriate to the needs of the students. This includes satisfying, where possible, both the needs of parents and the needs of the student throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at the school. St Jakobi management and staff are required to respect the confidentiality of students' and parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals. Further, that St Jakobi has protocols in place to ensure all electronic data relating to personal information is secure.
- Administration will take reasonable steps to ensure that personal information collected is accurate, complete and up-to-date. This information will need to be reviewed from time-to-time.

Employees

- All employees are required to work with the school administration to implement and maintain the School Privacy Policy.
- They are responsible for taking the necessary steps to ensure that an individual's privacy is respected.

- Employees must also be aware that under the Privacy Act the Australian Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee's record.
- Regarding students, employees should recognise that young people do have rights under the Privacy Act. In some circumstances it would be appropriate to seek consents from them, particularly when they are older.

Parents/ Caregivers

- Parents / Caregivers are required to provide the School with accurate information requested in enrolment forms. Parents need to inform the school when changes occur to the original information. They are required to respond to School communications promptly.

PRIVACY POLICY - PROCEDURE

HOW DATA IS COLLECTED

The collection of personal information depends on the circumstances in which St Jakob is collecting it. If it is reasonable and practical to do so, we collect personal information directly from the individual.

St Jakob has, where possible has attempted to standardise the collection of personal information by using specifically designed forms for:

- Enrolment procedures
- Travel to and from school and including camps and excursions
- Health Information Disclosure Form
- Financial obligation

HOW DO WE USE PERSONAL INFORMATION?

St Jakob only uses personal information that is reasonably necessary for one or more of our functions or activities (the primary purpose) or for a related secondary purpose that would be reasonably expected by you, or for an activity or purpose to which you have consented.

Our primary uses of personal information include, but are not limited to:

- providing education, pastoral care, extra-curricular and health services
- satisfying our legal obligations including our duty of care and child protection obligations
- keeping parents informed as to school community matters through correspondence, newsletters and magazines
- marketing, promotional and fundraising activities
- supporting the activities of school associations such as [Alumni Association] Parents & Friends/ Class Carers
- supporting community-based causes and activities, charities and other causes in connection with the School's functions or activities
- helping us to improve our day-to-day operations including training our staff
- systems development; developing new programs and services; undertaking planning, research and statistical analysis
- school administration eg. insurance purposes
- the employment of staff
- the engagement of volunteers.

We will only use or disclose sensitive or health information for a secondary purpose if you would reasonably expect us to use or disclose the information and the secondary purpose is directly related to the primary purpose.

We may share personal information to related bodies corporate, but only if necessary for us to provide our services. The school/School may disclose information about an individual to overseas recipients only when it is necessary, for example to facilitate a student exchange program. St Jakob will not however send information about an individual outside of Australia without their consent.

EMPLOYMENT APPLICANTS STAFF MEMBERS AND CONTRACTORS

In relation to personal information of employment applicants, staff members and contractors, St Jakobi's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which the St Jakobi uses personal information of employment applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- In administering the individual's employment or contract
- To care for the staff member in a medical situation or emergency
- For insurance purposes;
- Seeking funds and marketing for the School;
- To satisfy St Jakobi's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation. In situations regarding child protection, it is the Principal who may seek, provide and/or share this information based on the circumstances and if any legal obligation exists.

VOLUNTEERS

St Jakobi obtains personal information about volunteers who assist the School in its functions or conduct associated activities, to enable the School and the volunteers to work together.

UPDATING PERSONAL INFORMATION

St Jakobi endeavours to ensure that the personal information it holds is accurate, complete and up-to-date. A person may seek to update their personal information held by the St Jakobi by contacting Administration at any time. The National Privacy Principles require the School not to store personal information longer than necessary.

STORAGE AND SECURITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

St Jakobi stores Personal Information in a variety of formats including, but not limited to:

- databases
- hard copy files
- personal devices, including laptop computers
- third party storage providers such as cloud storage facilities
- paper based files.

St Jakobi takes all reasonable steps to protect the personal information we hold from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

These steps include, but are not limited to:

- Restricting access and user privilege of information by staff depending on their role and responsibilities.
- Ensuring staff do not share personal passwords
- Ensuring hard copy files are stored in lockable filing cabinets in lockable rooms. Staff access is subject to user privilege
- Ensuring access to St Jakobi's premises are secured at all times
- Implementing physical security measures around the school buildings and grounds to prevent break-ins
- Ensuring our IT and cyber security systems, policies and procedures are implemented and up to date
- Ensuring staff comply with internal policies and procedures when handling the information

- Undertaking due diligence with respect to third party service providers who may have access to personal information, including customer identification providers and cloud service providers, to ensure as far as practicable that they are compliant with the APPs or a similar privacy regime.
- The destruction, deletion or de-identification of personal information we hold that is no longer needed, or required to be retained by any other laws.

Our public website may contain links to other third-party websites outside of St Jakobi. St Jakobi is not responsible for the information stored, accessed, used or disclosed on such websites and we cannot comment on their privacy policies.

RESPONDING TO DATA BREACHES

St Jakobi will take appropriate, prompt action if we have reasonable grounds to believe that a data breach may have, or is suspected to have occurred. Depending on the type of data breach, this may include a review of our internal security procedures, taking remedial internal action, notifying affected individuals and the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC).

If we are unable to notify individuals, we will publish a statement and take reasonable steps to publicise the contents of this statement.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information may be disclosed to government agencies, other parents, other schools, recipients of school publications, visiting teachers, counsellors and coaches, our services providers, agents, contractors, business partners, related entities and other recipients from time to time, if the individual:

- Has given consent; or
- Would reasonably expect the personal information to be disclosed in that manner.

St Jakobi may disclose personal information without consent or in a manner which an individual would reasonably expect if:

- We are required to do so by law.
- The disclosure will lessen or prevent a serious threat to the life, health or safety of an individual or to public safety
- Another permitted general situation applies
- Disclosure is reasonably necessary for a law enforcement related activity
- Another permitted health situation exists

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION TO OVERSEAS RECIPIENTS

Personal information about an individual may be disclosed to an overseas organisation in the course of providing our services, for example when storing information with a “cloud service provider” which stores data outside of Australia

We will however take all reasonable steps not to disclose an individual’s personal information to overseas recipients unless:

- we have the individual’s consent (which may be implied);
- we have satisfied ourselves that the overseas recipient is compliant with the APPs, or a similar privacy regime;
- we form the opinion that the disclosure will lessen or prevent a serious threat to the life, health or safety of an individual or to public safety; or
- we are taking appropriate action in relation to suspected unlawful activity or serious misconduct.

PERSONAL INFORMATION OF STUDENTS

We will treat notices provided to parents/carers as notices provided to students and we will treat consents provided by parents/carers as consents provided by a student.

We are however cognisant of the fact that children do have rights under the Privacy Act, and that in certain circumstances (especially when dealing with older students and especially when dealing with sensitive information), it will be appropriate to seek and obtain consents directly from students. We also acknowledge that there may be occasions where a student may give or withhold consent with respect to the use of their personal information independently from their parents/carers.

There may also be occasions where parents/carers are denied access to information with respect to their children, because to provide such information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or result in a breach of the school's duty of care to the student.

THE QUALITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We take all reasonable steps to ensure the personal information we hold, use and disclose is accurate, complete and up-to-date, including at the time of using or disclosing the information.

If St Jakobi becomes aware that the Personal Information is incorrect or out of date, we will take reasonable steps to rectify the incorrect or out of date information.

ACCESS AND CORRECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

You may submit a request to us to access the personal information we hold, or request that we change the personal information. Upon receiving such a request, we will take steps to verify your identity before granting access or correcting the information.

If we reject the request, you will be notified accordingly. Where appropriate, we will provide the reason/s for our decision. If the rejection relates to a request to change personal information, an individual may make a statement about the requested change and we will attach this to their record.

PRIVACY COMPLAINTS

If you wish to make a complaint about a breach by us of the Australian Privacy principals you may do so by providing a written complaint via email, letter or by personal delivery to any of our contact details as noted below. You may also make a complaint verbally.

We will respond to your complaint within a reasonable time (usually no longer than 30 days) and may seek further information from you in order to provide a full and complete response.

If you are not satisfied with our response, you may refer the complaint to the OAIC. A complaint can be made using the OAIC online Privacy Complaint form or by mail, fax or email.

A referral to OAIC should be a last resort once all other avenues of resolution have been exhausted.
