On my recent trip to Alice Springs, I was lucky enough to view some originals of Albert Namatjira’s paintings. Albert was born and grew up at the Hermannsburg Mission out of Alice Springs. At 13 he went to traditional country and was initiated into his Arrernte community, of which he later became an elder.

Albert had already dabbled in art as he was a budding artist at a young age, but he became enamoured when two artists from Melbourne, one of whom was Rex Battarbee, came to paint in the region, and hold classes. Rex’s medium was watercolour, and seeing their familiar landscape painted in this tradition had a huge impact on the local people and Albert in particular. Whilst Rex started out teaching Albert, it very quickly became apparent that the student would one day become the teacher, due to Albert’s remarkable skill and unique perspective and relationship with the land. Rex was said to be “astonished and inspired” by Albert’s skills and visible connection with his environment.

Albert’s original paintings have significant value in the Australian and international art world. The value of a piece of art is determined by three things:

- Who created it?
- How many copies are there of it?
- What is someone willing to pay to own it?

Did you realise that you too are a priceless piece of art? And that each of your children are priceless pieces of art? And that our staff are also priceless pieces of art! The greatest Artist in the universe created you, hand crafting you to be a unique, one-off piece. There has never been a ‘you’ before, and there will never be a ‘you’ again. Clearly as a work of art, we all have some flaws, but despite these God loves us so much, that he paid a costly price that we might be His – the cost of his own Son, Jesus. He paid the price so that these flaws, or sins, could be forgiven, and we could be his own.

What amazing love! May our lives be filled with thankfulness that He was willing to pay the price, and may we share and pass on His love to those around us!

God bless your week and the upcoming school holidays,
Kathryn
PRINCIPAL REPORT

Possible threat to our Barossa Airshow
You will read in the Leader Newspaper this week that our Barossa Airshow is currently under threat, due to a proposed telecommunications tower to be built on land near to the Rowlands Flat Airfield, at Krondorf Road. Mr Steve Ahrens, our dedicated Airshow Chairman, was on the ball, and acted as soon as he got wind of the proposal. Whilst we are not against the tower as such, we are against it in that particular location, as it would prove to be a safety hazard to our acrobatic and display pilots, who are the highlight of our Airshow.

On the school’s behalf, I have put in a submission opposing the tower in its proposed location, as has our governing School Council and Mr Ahrens on behalf of the Airshow Committee. We also have support in this from Mr Chris Sperou, who loves flying in our Airshow, but who also believes the safety of display pilots would be severely compromised should the tower go ahead in its proposed location. Mr Ahrens and I will be present at the Barossa Council meeting, on the school community’s behalf, when this development application is heard and will keep you informed of any decisions or further actions.

Cancer Council SA Casual Day – Thank you!
Our school looked reminiscent of a field of daffodils last Friday when students took part in our casual day, featuring the colour yellow, to raise money for the wonderful work done by the Cancer Council. We raised $288.80 – well done and thank you, St Jakobi!

Pupil Free Day – Monday, 10th November
You will have noted that we have an extra pupil free day this year, as has been advised to parents many times throughout 2014. To recap, this is due to the fact that we have the opportunity to have leading UK specialist Mr Neil Mackay, whose passion is meeting a diverse range of student learning needs with a particular focus on Dyslexia, coming to work with our staff. This is a unique opportunity for our school to work with someone of his caliber, and to work 1:1 with him in meeting the needs of our students here at St Jakobi, both in the classroom with our teachers, and in learning support with our Learning Support Officers.

Vacation Care will be available for the day – don’t hesitate to contact Wilder to book a place should you require care for your children on this day.

2015 Re-enrolment letters have been distributed.
Please return these to the front office by Friday 26th of September.
Thank you!

WOODWIND TEACHER

Hello everyone! My name is Katherine Trevilyan and I am very excited to be joining your school as a Woodwind (Flute, Clarinet, Saxophone & Recorder) and Piano tutor in term 4! With a Diploma in Classical Music and having studied Music Education, I have been teaching at various schools around the area for 6 years and enjoy helping students to use music to grow both as a musician and as an individual.

Did you know that research has shown that children who learn an instrument have greater academic success? Whether it be for AMEB examinations or just for enjoyment I will guide my students down whichever musical path they choose. Lessons are $26.00 for 30 minutes. Please don’t hesitate to contact me if you have any further queries. I look forward to meeting you all soon!

Williamstown Pantomime

Annually the P&F fundraises at the Williamstown Pantomime by selling snacks and beverages throughout the intervals of the six performances. Every year we ask for families to provide large quantities of home baked goodies and helpers to serve at each interval. A flyer will be forwarded to all families this week suggesting goods to be donated for sale at the intervals. We have already had requests for the famous “St Jakobi sausage rolls” from some regular performance goers. The performances every year are professional and great fun, so please spread the word to families and friends. We ask that you please hop on board and help us raise funds for St Jakobi. We understand how busy everyone is with the approaching concert and thank you so much in advance for your assistance.

We hope that all families have a restful and enjoyable two weeks and for those lucky enough to be heading away, please be safe.

We look forward to fundraising with you all again in Term Four.

NADIA BOLZ-WEBER
Founding Lutheran Pastor of the House for All Sinners & Saints Denver, Colorado
Author of ‘Pastors: The Cranky, Beautiful Faith of a Sinner and Saint’

7:30 PM
BAROSSA ARTS & CONVENTION CENTRE (Faith Lutheran College)

TOCIC: GOOD NEWS FOR SINNERS & SAINTS with Q&A
Free entry: An opportunity for a free Will retuning offering will be made available

From a teenage rebellion against her fundamentalist Christianity, drug and alcohol addiction and doing stand-up in a comedy club in Denver, Nadia Bolz-Weber describes herself as one of society’s outcasts. She shares all the stereotypes of Lutheran pastors and uses stunning stories and raw honesty to portray herself as a woman who is at the same time both faithful and flawed, and in so doing gives hope to the rest of us. She makes it seem reasonable and fun to be simultaneously traditional and innovative, ancient and postmodern, devout and irreverent, brave and humble, prolific and profound...

"Bolz-Webber is highly regarded for her theological wisdom, her passion and creativity in preaching and embedding the Christian story across generational divides — and her free spirit," Hoffman said. "She meets people where they are, encourages them, and yet, occasionally, just leaves me shaking my head in wonder."

LCA Praying Bishop Mark Hannon

Bolz-Weber doesn’t pretend to have all the answers, but she’s more than willing to tell her stories and relay her belief in the future of the Christian church and its message.
